

COMPLETE PROGRAM

October 13

3:30-5:30pm artist talk

Rae Spoon

where: Market Hall Performing Arts Centre, 140 Charlotte Street

In partnership with the Rainbow Youth Program at PARN

admission: Free

8pm performance

Leanne Betasamosake Simpson and Nick Ferrio

Please join us for Leanne Simpson's Peterborough album release of f(l)ight, followed by Nick Ferrio's debut of all new music from his forthcoming album

Soothsayer

where: Gordon Best Theatre, 216 Hunter Street W.

tickets: $15. Available in advance at the Only Café, 216 Hunter St. W. beginning Sept 29.

October 14

6-7:30pm workshop

Reconciliation 101: For Settlers with comedian and community energizer, Ryan McMahon where: Monocle Centre for the Arts, 140 Simcoe St. Upper

In partnership with the Canadian Race Relations Committee

admission: Free

8pm performance

A Divine Intervention. A call and response concert with musicians Rae Spoon, Al Tuck, Sean Conway with musicians Curtis Driedger, Missy Knott, Patrick Lefler, Gratia Leitch and Evangeline Gentle.

where: Gordon Best Theatre, 216 Hunter Street W.

tickets: $15. Available in advance at the Only Café, 216 Hunter St. W.

10pm performance

Late Night Dance Party with D.J. Bear Witness (A Tribe Called Red) and Joel Davenport

where: Gordon Best Theatre, 216 Hunter Street W.

tickets: $15. Available in advance at the Only Café, 216 Hunter St. W. beginning Sept 29.

October 15

1pm-3:30pm workshop

Canoe Songs Workshop with Pura Fe

Please join us as Pura Fe leads a vocal and harmony workshop, teaching her family's canoe songs.

where: First Peoples Gathering Space, Trent University. Located at the Enweying Building, the yellow (ochre 33) building on the east bank of the Otonabee River In partnership with First Peoples House of Learning, Trent University
admission: Free

2pm artist talk

Ann Beam

where: Art Gallery of Peterborough 250 Crescent Street. admission: Free, refreshments served Supported by Beats and Braids

3pm performance

Al Tuck

where: Catalina's, 131 Hunter Street W
tickets: $10 on sale at Catalina's

6pm-7pm reading and book launch

Nathan Niigan Noodin Adler reads from his new book Wrist. With guest writers Kate Story, Ursula Pflug and Janette Platana

where: Catalina's, 131 Hunter Street W. admission: Free

8pm performance

Pura Fe, followed by Anishnaabe comedian Ryan McMahon

In partnership with The First Peoples House of Learning, Trent University where: Market Hall Theatre, 140 Charlotte Street tickets: $15. Available from the Market Hall Box Office.
online: markethall.org / phone: 705-749-1146

10pm performance

Beats and Braids Open Stage

At the Garnet, 231 Hunter St. W. admission: pay-what-you-can